

Three 3's In A Row

Find someone who can explain what's asked for in the box (find one person per box). Ask them to initial your box and tell you the answer. Then you should write the answer in your box. Note: Other than initials, you are the only person who should be writing answers in your boxes.

Recall your days as a student in K-12 schools, which of these practices do you remember? How did you feel about them? Initials _____	If you could eradicate one (and only one) of the practices described, which would you choose and why? Initials _____	What was your biggest takeaway from the readings? Explain why. Initials _____
What do you see as the most persistent driver of problematic practices? Why? Initials _____	What practice do you wish had been included in this book, but was not? Explain why you think it is important. Initials _____	Describe Formative Assessment. Why would some proponents believe that it is the most underutilized magic bullet in education? Initials _____
The practices described in this text often provide perceived short-term rewards with long-term costs. Elaborate on that concept. Initials _____	What were some positive alternatives that you would like to implement? Initials _____	Flip through the book and find a quote that you noted or highlighted. Talk about it. Initials _____